Beginner Quick Reference

mahjongfreegame.com

Four players. On your turn, draw one tile and discard one tile. Be first to finish a winning hand. Ask your group which style they play, since rules differ.

The sets

Pair: two identical tiles

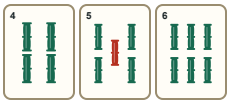

Kong: four identical tiles

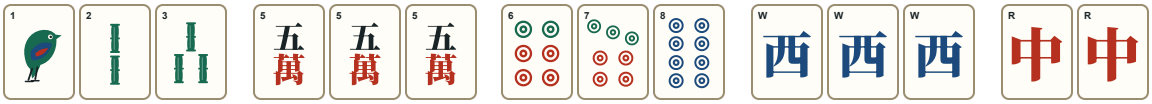

Pung: three identical tiles

Chow: a run of three in one suit

A standard hand (Hong Kong and Riichi)

American hands must match the League's current card, which you buy from the League.

Your turn

1. Draw from the wall, or claim the last discard if allowed.
2. Discard one tile face up.
3. Count: you should hold 13 tiles between turns.

Useful words

Wall	The face-down rows you draw from	East	The dealer's seat
Discard	The tile you throw away	Honor tile	A wind or dragon
Calling	Claiming a discard	Wait	The tile that would finish your hand

Mahjong Solitaire

A different, one-player game. Match two identical tiles that are free. A tile is free when nothing rests on it and its left or right side is open. Any flower matches any flower. Any season matches any season.
